Notes :

1. For those arriving in Japan on April 10th, Saturday, we recommend to visit on April 11th the Imperial Palace Garden in front of the Hotel and Ginza Area, the busiest shopping street about one mile south east of the Hotel. We make a sightseeing trip to Ueno and Asakusa, a downtown of Tokyo on April 14th, Wednesday. For Asakusa, you can visit the website :

<http://cmd.flowers.klever.net/sensoujiarch/>

2. We recommend 7 sites to visit in Kyoto as follows by the order of popularity among the people from abroad. (Depending upon everyone’s choices, the desired visits may not be possible.) (* According to the latest information of March 31st, a bus tour will be possible, and we will visit the following Kinkakuji, Ryhouanji, and Kiyomizu Temple. In this case, we will leave for Kyoto by bus from Hotel at 8:30am.)

1) Kinkakuji Temple (Golden pavilion)

2) Ryouanji Temple

- 3) Kiyomizu Temple
- 4) Nijou Castle
- 5) Heian Jingu Shrine
- 6) Ginkakuji Temple (Silver pavilion)
- 7) Nishi Honganji Temple

It is possible to visit websites of these places by clicking “Japan” of
